3. Cambodian behavior during interim between "rejection" US border declaration and June 10 was consistent with view that Sihanouk wished to delay but not permanently stop movement toward renewing relations with USG. However, we think his decision to break with FRG was unsurprising in light his well-known hypersensitivity to the kind of public debate which occurred between CDU and SPD over just how hard to hit him for recognizing East Germany. We doubt if break has any wider significance than reflection wounded personal and national pride.
